

On This Side Of The Sun

By Phat

The crickets are back and Phat's got 'em.

SIESTA TIME, as advocated here last week, got plenty of response from Villagers. . . . Former Councilman Walter Z. Allen said he had not only been boosting a Siesta hour here each noon but had been practicing it for years. . . . Mrs. Allen was not so enthusiastic: "Go ahead and snore away the middle hours of the day—but don't try to get everyone else to do it. Who's going to run the police department, the fire department, telephone office, water, power company and so on if every one sleeps in the middle of the day? . . . "Am against it," comes another note. "You feel so dopey after sleeping in the heat of midday. What do you mean, awakening rested and refreshed?"

MORE MAIL on the same subject: "What Palm Springs really needs instead of a Siesta hour is a tramway office. Then people wouldn't come in pestering city hall employees, police officers and The Sun office girl with foolish questions about the tram." . . . "One thing at a time, Phat," comes another note. "Stick to your campaign to return the benches to the Drive. These warm days I need a place to stop and rest while on necessary walks up and down the street. Let's have a place to sit before we work on a scheme to become prone."

BRIBERY seems to have reared its ugly head in connection with the Siesta plan. Allen, most enthusiastic proponent, said he had given City Manager Bill Alworth some white pants knowing the latter would use his influence in promoting the noon slumber hour. . . . "We not only need a Siesta hour," Allen said, "but we ought to go tropical as well as western." . . . Mrs. G. hailed the news of the hike in prices for cigarettes with glee this week. "Now I can retire two of those 11 ash trays you try to hit but miss," she said when I told her of the increase this week in cost of cigarettes. . . . Wait until she sees me crack out my smelly pipes.

TRAFFIC may be thinned a bit, which would be a good thing, because gasoline, like cigarettes, went up this week. It's a cent more a gallon now. . . . There may be an interesting development tomorrow on the site of Bullocks new Palm Springs store. They are going to bring in that well they have been digging to supply water for the cooling system. Since it's right on a line with the Indian hot springs, suppose they bring in hot mineral water? Be all right in winter but not for the cooling system. . . . "We'll just have to go deeper," said the head driller, crossing his fingers. They're down 440 feet now.

FOR A LONG TIME I had heard of Carl Higgins of Cathedral City but had never met him. Yesterday a man walks into the office, looks me over and says: "So you're Phat, eh? My what a surprise." And then he got off two quick insults. (a) "I expected to see a young good looking chap but—(b) "Why don't you let Mrs. G. write all of your columns? They're so much better." . . . Higgins it was, who has been in the date industry for a lot of years, and who recently sold half interest in his Higgins Date Shop on Highway 111 to Mr. and Mrs. William Aebi, recently of Cincinnati. . . . Aebi was a tech sergeant and radio operator for the ATC and was stationed at the local air base when not flying over the Himalayan hump. . . . The Aebis liked it so well here they decided to stick around awhile.

FAVORITE number of mine right now is "To Each His Own." Had intended to mention that for the past three weeks but it always was crowded out and was afraid each Saturday it would get about it. It hasn't yet and maybe it won't. . . . Others I like are "I Don't Know Enough About You" and "Doing What Comes Naturally." . . . Got one of those Guy Lombardo albums this week, courtesy of Harry Bernhard of Reed's. He asked me not to mention it as he only had a few and it seems I'm not the only Lombardo fan in town. . . . And thanks to those three Villagers who brought in copies of the current American magazine with an article on the Lombardos.

COURTESY is a habit down at the Welwood Murray Public Library. Every time I'm stuck on a historical fact or a famous name, I just dial them and get the answer. Betty Lou Floan put in 15 minutes in reference books the other day to find me the first name of a former governor. It only took up one sure line of type but the service is surely appreciated. . . . Best post card of the week, in my opinion, came from a nice elderly winter visitor, now vacationing up in a high mountain resort. "Sleeping under three blankets nightly. Wish you were here." . . . My!

New Season to Get Away to Big Start

Council Puts O.K.
On Proposal for Western Week Event

City council at its meeting Friday approved plans for the gala opening of the 1946-47 season when it put an o.k. on a request of the Los Compadres club for a big rodeo and street parade on October 23.

The request for the parade permit and use of the Field Club for the rodeo was made in a letter to William E. Alworth, city manager, from the club, presented by Wall Spalding, publicity manager.

FOUR-DAY EVENT

Western Week, this fall, will start on Oct. 21 and continue through Oct. 24. An elaborate program is being prepared by the Los Compadres club, including Kangaroo courts, street dances and a parade, to be followed by a professional rodeo combined with gymkhana events.

Council at its meeting Friday voted to grant the club use of the Field Club and also issued a permit for the parade. The event will be held in the evening and the rodeo will be staged under the arches.

PLANS UNDER WAY

Phil Delano, Joe Butler and Elmo Purnell are in charge of the parade and rodeo.

It will be the third time the season has been inaugurated by a Western Week. Colorful western garb will be in order throughout the four days of the event and on every Saturday of the season.

Western Week was inaugurated in 1944 by the Los Compadres to keep the Village in tune with its old time traditions.

Hot News!

It Did Get a Bit
Warm, Didn't It?

This story is being written for those fiends who send postal cards:

"Dear Phat—Slept under two blankets last night. Wish you were here."

Twice this week the temperature hit 114 on the up-side and one night it didn't get below 81 on the down-side. That's why, after having written those friends who send postal cards, the editor crossed out the "r" in "friends."

Anyway, here it is:

Date	Max.	Min.
July 25	109	70
July 26	114	72
July 27	113	70
July 28	105	81
July 29	109	74
July 30	113	73
July 31	114	65

Wants The Sun

Outside of That, Her
Trip Complete Success

Four thousand miles—so far—and not one bit of tire trouble. Just a wonderful time. That was the text of a letter to The Sun from Gertrude E. Hunt, well known Villager, now in Vermont. Motoring east, she stopped off at Grand Canyon, Santa Fe, Peoria, Cleveland to visit friends.

Her only complaint was that The Sun had not caught up with her on her travels and she wanted the news of the Village. She will be back here in October.

Returning

Jimmy Shea's Back,
And S.P. Has Got Him

Remember James G. Shea? Jimmy Shea, that is? He was the popular Southern Pacific agent here before Uncle Sam put the finger on him and dished him up in an army uniform. As Sgt. James Shea he put in a lot of time for his uncle but "they're taking my uniform away from me the last of August. Really, I'm not broken hearted as I look forward with a great deal of pleasure to life in the Village."

Sgt. Shea, (sergeant up to the end of August) will return to Palm Springs as traveling passenger agent for the S. P., the position he held when entering the service.

Don Bardwell, who held the post while Shea was in the army, has been granted a leave of absence before assuming another responsible position with the S.P.

Mrs. Cree Dies After Long Illness

Well Known Village
Civic Worker, Long
Ill, Succumbs Sunday

Villagers were shocked Monday to learn of the death of one of Palm Springs' leading civic workers, Margaret Cree, 47, wife of Raymond Cree, well known local realtor and long time resident of this area.

Mrs. Cree succumbed late Sunday afternoon at the Garden Grove sanitarium where she had gone in June to rest after a long illness. She had been in good spirits during the day and felt she would be able to come back to the village in the fall. Death was due to a heart attack.

LAID TO REST HERE

Last rites for Mrs. Cree were said yesterday at Acheson and Graham's chapel in Riverside with the Rev. Robert M. Hogarth, rector of St. Paul's in the Desert, Episcopal church, in charge. Mrs. Cree had been an active worker in the local church.

Burial was in Palm Springs cemetery late yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Cree was a native of Riverside, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. T. K. Seburn. She was educated in Riverside schools and later was a reporter and feature writer for the Press and Enterprise of that city.

HERE TWELVE YEARS

Coming to the Village 12 years ago, she served for a while as assistant secretary at the chamber of commerce. Later utilizing her newspaper experience, she served as publicity director for local civic organizations, notably the Woman's club and its affiliate, the Welfare and Friendly Aid society. She was especially active in the latter organization. She also took a big part in local Red Cross work and received an insignia for meritorious service from the national Red Cross. She was a member of the Palm Springs Tennis club and the Polo club.

She is survived by her husband, Raymond Cree, but leaves no other immediate relatives.

More Pay

Council Puts O.K.
On Wage-Hour Change

A comprehensive plan for proposed personnel rules was approved by city councilmen at its meeting last Friday, classifying city employees, fixing basic salaries and establishing hours of work. The plan was submitted by City Manager William E. Alworth. Recommendations for salary raises in all departments were included.

The classification set-up was based on questionnaires filled out by employees themselves, the pay rate, in five steps, the mid-point being based on the average pay rate in other California cities adjusted to the Palm Springs cost of living, and the hours were adjusted to the needs of the various departments.

WORK-HOURS FIXED

City hall employees were on a 41-hour week, police department employees on a 40-hour week, down eight hours, fire department employees on a 72-hour week, reduced from 96 hours and city waste disposal workers on a 48 hour week, additional workers to be added to make this possible.

Provisions were set up for vacations with pay, based on length of time in the employ of the city and also for sick leave.

TO AID EFFICIENCY

"Adoption of this plan" said Manager Alworth, "will be of untold value in attracting and holding competent workers in all city departments."

The report was approved by city council unanimously.

There's Rain Down In Florida—Cooler

"Lots of rain down here and a little cooler," writes W. R. Boyd, winter Villager, now at Coral Gables, Florida.

"Just like Palm Springs this summer, according to The Sun—lots of rain, but it is cooler!"

Andre Nisson, "The Decorator," is leaving this week for Chicago, Georgia and North Carolina. In the south he will be joined by Mrs. Nisson and their baby. During his absence Jim Senior and Tom Swift will be in charge of his business.

City Acts to Insure Greater Traffic Safety

Sorry, But We Couldn't Help It

Fire Makes Curtailment of Size of The Sun Necessary

Fire of undetermined origin shortly after midnight yesterday swept through the paper warehouse of The Desert Sun at Banning, doing damage estimated in excess of $6,000 and destroying more than 18 tons of valuable newspaper.

Because of the fire, this issue of The Sun is not as originally mapped by the editorial and advertising staffs. From a planned 16-page paper, a drop to a 12-page paper was made suddenly necessary.

TWO-HOUR FIRE

The blaze was discovered at 12:35 a.m. yesterday by a passing Southern Pacific railroad section worker and was not subdued until after 2 a.m.

It had been planned to run 16 pages this week and news and advertising quotas for such a paper were set up Monday. The fire made an immediate curtailment necessary. Almost $300 in advertising was deleted, all news pictures eliminated and several news articles dropped.

SOME CUTS MADE

All regular subscribers will receive their copies of The Sun this week but a proportionate reduction in the number of papers for newsstands was ordered.

Because of the large circulation of The Sun it is necessary to start printing two days in advance of the publication date. Pages 9, 12, 13, and 16 of the proposed issue of this week went to press Wednesday evening. More than 2300 copies had been printed before the fire occurred. So, many subscribers will probably find a page 16 in a 12-page paper. Every paper had to be utilized because of the sudden unexpected shortage.

TO NORMAL SOON

In the meantime every effort to replenish the lost stock is being made. It is a difficult task because most of the paper mills have been strike bound for several weeks.

The Sun will, however, endeavor to the utmost to maintain its usual presentation of the news. So if today's issue is not the usual orderly Sun you have a right to expect, don't blame the editor—blame the fire. It is hoped to proceed with next week's proposed anniversary edition as originally mapped.

Burglars Get $50 in Cash in Raid Here

Burglars, using a screw driver and a knife, cut a hole in the screen at the Malt Shop, 200 North Indian avenue, sometime during the night Tuesday and got away with an estimated $50 in cash.

Charles Moore, 71 East Andreas road, proprietor, reported the loss to police Wednesday.

He said that the thieves got away with $10 in rolls of pennies and took an estimated $40 from a pin-ball machine by breaking into it and stealing the cash box.

An attempt was made the same night to enter the Palm Springs Drug and Import company.

Survey by police revealed that the same screw driver used to break into the malt shop was used at the Import company. The burglars failed to gain entrance, however.

Speaks in North

Mrs. Whitehorn Talks
To S.F. Audience

Mrs. James Whitehorn, editor of the Republican Spokesman, prominent in political affairs in the state and nation and a winter resident of Palm Springs, was in San Francisco last weekend to present a talk on current national trends.

Mrs. Whitehorn's weekly column on political affairs in The Desert Sun, is widely copied by newspapers throughout the nation.

She is a daughter of the late Governor James N. Gillette of California.

Backfire Causes Blaze In Officer's Auto

Too "thin" a mixture caused a back-fire in the motor of City Health Officer Dr. O. B. McRory's automobile at 7:26 a.m., starting a fire which did considerable damage to the car.

The blaze occurred in the 600 block on South Palm Canyon drive.

Advertising

Chamber Files Plea
For Publicity Fund

Request of Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce for an appropriation of $2,500 for advertising and publicity purposes during the coming year was presented to city council at its meeting Friday and referred to the finance committee, Charles Farrell, chairman.

The letter to the council set forth the value of publicizing the city and asked that the fund be included in the budget for the coming year.

In past years the city has underwritten publicity put out by the chamber, paying the bills as they were presented, up to a stipulated sum.

Mrs. Ernestine Wood, mother of Grant Wood, was in the Village this week to visit her son and his wife. She returned to Los Angeles and Hollywood Thursday for the remainder of the summer. Her home is in Banning.

World War II Vets Organize Post Here

Organization of the first post of the American Veterans of World War II, in Riverside county, took place in the Palm Springs area last Friday night, when members of that newly created organization met at the Rancho Mirage American Legion hall.

Present for the occasion were members of the American Legion, and Veterans of Foreign Wars who wished the AMVET post good luck and warned of the hard work each veteran organization faced. George Boldin, Banning, recently elected commander of district 21, of the American Legion, offered the assistance of his long years of experience as a service officer. Glen Rogers, commander of the Frontier Post of the VFW, veteran of World War 2 was not only present to wish the new organization well but signed the charter roll as a member.

ONLY VETS OF LAST WAR

AMVets is composed entirely of ex-service personnel that served in World War II. Ronald A. Butten, California state commander who was also present when the new post met, announced that AMVETS had posts in every state in the Union except two. He said that Santa Barbara boasted of 800 members and was the largest single unit of AMVETS in California.

Butten also outlined the aims and platform of the comparatively new organization. He declared that AMVETS nationally would work with other service groups in protecting the rights of veterans of all wars. He added that the aims of AMVETS would be to take its quiet and orderly position in the life of the country and would not demand special privileges because of military service in the war just closed.

BOLDIN MAKES ADDRESS

George Boldin in his address pointed to the hardships the disabled American veterans underwent following the first world war despite the existence of other organizations.

Boldin added that there are no one or two organizations in the country which would get all of the veterans of the war just closed as members and that there was room for a clean, decent, civic and nationally minded veteran's group in the country composed of World War II veterans.

It was revealed that most of the members who became AMVETS last Friday night also held cards in either the American Legion, VFW's or both.

NEW OFFICERS

Elected commander of the Palm Springs post of AMVETS was Frank Bogert, recently returned from the Navy. Other officers were: William Rashall, vice-commander; Donald Cameron, second vice-commander; Graham Dexter, adjutant; Shirley Burton, ex-nurse, provost-marshal; Dr. Claude Church, service officer; Father McGann, chaplain.

Mr. and Mrs. Al E. Hoover are visiting their daughter, Dulcie, in Yosemite and from there plan to visit the Barney Johnsons at Crystal Crag lodge in the Bishop country. They also plan to stop over in Feather River canyon before returning to the Village in September.

Complete Revision of Code Planned

Safety Committee To File Report With Council Next Week

City council at its meeting next week will be given a complete report of a traffic survey authorized earlier in the year, City Manager William E. Alworth said yesterday.

The Public Safety committee, which consists of Councilmen Charles Farrell, chairman, and Councilmen Armand Turonnet and John Archibald, worked with City Manager Alworth and Chief of Police A. G. Kettmann, in a thorough survey of traffic conditions here and their findings will be presented in the report, now being prepared at the city hall.

NEW STOP SIGNS

Included in the study will be recommendations for new stop signs and the elimination of some now in existence. It is also planned to install reflector buttons on all stop signs now not so equipped, so that they may be plainly seen at night. Changes in parking zones to bring them all up to date, are also contemplated.

New lines will be painted on the pavement and curbs to designate parking zones, pedestrian lanes and other markings to insure a greater degree of safety.

READY IN FALL

It is hoped that the new traffic set-up will be ready for the opening of the new season.

A map of the city, showing stop signs, parking areas and so on, is being prepared.

Under the proposed plan, Indian avenue and Ramon road will become arterial highways, such as Palm Canyon drive is now. Traffic leading into these thoroughfares will be stopped reducing the chance of accident.

JOIN STATE MOVE

Chief Kettmann said yesterday that the Village police department is cooperating to the fullest extent with plans of the state department of motor vehicles in a drive to reduce traffic mishaps. State Director Edgar E. Lampton in Sacramento yesterday revealed that traffic safety councils have been formed in more than a dozen California counties. A county traffic safety conference is planned in Riverside county at an early date to form such a council. Chief Kettmann said the local department will take part in these discussions.

A continuous study of traffic to insure greater safety and cut the number of casualties, is planned.

Real Gift

Ham That Am Soon
Is Ham That Was

The ham that am. . . . Anyway, the ham that was, in two cases.

Reuben Miller, well known Villager, spent part of the summer in Virginia.

Being just a gentleman of the Old South" he expressed four Virginia hams to friends here. One went to Johnnie and Connie DeVine, one to Gordon and Neva Youngs, one to Charley Sprinkle and one to City Clerk Louise McCann.

No record has been obtained on the fate of the hams that went to the DeVines or the Youngs, but both Sprinkle and City Clerk McCann said that no one need hint for invitations. The Virginia ham is all gone by now.

Scooter Passenger Hurt in Accident

Bill Rogers, riding in the sidecar of a motor-scooter driven by Dwight Hopper, had the breath knocked out of him but was otherwise uninjured in a mishap this week at Sips and Snacks, at the south end of town. The scooter, which Hopper, who resides at 292 South Indian avenue, was operating, overturned as it was turning into the cafe's parking lot. Rogers was thrown out of the sidecar.

Bombay To Open In October With Excellent Foods

After the middle of October, it will be the Bombay.

Don Manchester of Doll House fame, last week purchased the former Kamoa House, 796 North Palm Canyon drive, from Sammy Briones, and changed the name to "The Bombay."

Tasty foods of the Orient as well as the good old American steaks and chops, will be featured. Manchester expects to open The Bombay early in October.

4 Village Youths At Camp Emerson

Four Palm Springs youths were concluding their stay at Camp Emerson, the county Boy Scout camp near Idyllwild. They were Bruce Gray, Barry DeVorzon, Robert Higgins and Kenneth Youngs.

Arthur A. Bailey Family To Spend August in North

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bailey were in the Village the fore part of the week making plans to gather up their family and go to Orcas island, in Puget Sound, for an August vacation.

Touring that section of the country recently they chanced upon Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Macartney who have summered on Orcas island for many years. Guests of the Macartneys for a few days, they so liked the country that they immediately made reservations for themselves and youngsters for this month.

Mr. Bailey had no comment on his fishing prowess while there. "I was fishing with the pastor, you know," he said.

Dr. Macartney is pastor of the Community church here.

CALIFORNIA SCENE—Paul Grimm, famous Palm Springs artist, doesn't confine his great work to the desert—he covers the Sierras, the coast and rural terrain all over the state. Above is one of the latter, a painting of California's back country which has attracted much favorable comment.

Wanna See a Real Fish? There's One On Display Here

Down at Jack Chambers' Palm Springs Electrical Supply company, there's a fish that is a fish.

In a refrigerator is a seven-pound Mackinaw trout, more than two feet long, caught by Charles McFarland, owner of a bicycle rental stand here during the season but partner in summer time of Bill Hager, at Bijau landing, Lake Tahoe, in a boat rental business.

Bill Hager, local real estate broker, who has been at Lake Tahoe since April, brought down the prize specimen Tuesday.

"But that seven-pound fish isn't the prize winner," she said. "They've caught them up to 25 pounds there."

Recently McFarland sent down some beauties to Floyd Bigley and other villagers.

Mrs. Hager plans to return to Lake Tahoe within a few days to spend the remainder of the summer.

KCMJ Inaugurates New Up-to-Minute Sport News Service

Broadcast of night ball games by KCMJ, direct from the Field Club, as a service for baseball enthusiasts in this area, is the newest development in sports coverage now being greatly expanded by Palm Springs own station.

Clinton Jones, general manager, said today, that Roland Vaile, KCMJ announcer has been assigned to describe all Palm Springs Inter-City series contest, each Tuesday and Thursday evening for the remainder of the season.

CHIEF ASSISTS

"We are indebted to Gus Kettman, manager of the Palm Springs Boys' club team," said Jones, "for releasing Vaile from his regular position in the line-up so that his baseball talents may be directed toward describing the games for the listeners." Vaile played left field for the boys club all summer and was formerly a high school baseball coach as well as a Pomona college ball player.

Initial broadcast in the series was from the Field Club last Wednesday when the Palm Springs Lions club and a team from Indio engaged in an exhibition game. In addition to the regular Tuesday and Thursday night schedule, other non-league games will be aired. Arrangements for KCMJ to cover the games were concluded between Jones and Harold West, organizer of the league, with the station donating time as a public service. Mr. West is arranging for a public address system at the Field Club, so that players and fans will hear major league and coast league ball scores as broadcast by KCMJ.

NEWS OF SPORTS

Jones also stated that, effective Monday August 5, KCMJ will provide a last-minute sports flash service through each broadcast day, starting at approximately 11:30 a.m. Bulletins of ball scores, golf matches, tennis tournaments and other sport contests will be presented during this period immediately as they are received on the United Press wire. Also at 4:25 p.m. daily, Roland Vaile will be featured in a sports round-up of all events. Sheldon Bren, KCMJ announcer, is already featured in his own weekly "Sportsman's Journal" Fridays at 9 p.m., with current emphasis on fishing news.

"We are going all out," explained Jones, "to give sport fans of the Palm Springs area the sports news they want, almost as quickly as it happens."

Not Too Hot

Four Councilmen
Show Up for Session

It was hot in Palm Springs last Friday. Well, anyway, it wasn't a day for coonskin caps, ear-muffs and sweaters.

But, with so many Villagers on vacation, four city councilmen were in town to furnish the necessary quorum for the city council meeting that day.

They were Mayor Clarence A. Hyde, Councilmen Culver Nichols, Charles Farrell and E. F. (Ted) Martell.

Councilman Armand Turonnet is in El Salvador, Councilman John Archibald at a convention in San Francisco and Councilman Maurice McCann in the wilds of the northwest, fishing.

Villager Flies To Hawaii To Visit Daughter

Mrs. H. L. Hansen, 444 Chino drive, left by Pan-American Clipper from Burbank for Hawaii Wednesday where she will visit her son-in-law and daughter, Lt. Col. and Mrs. F. E. Leek, and their daughter, Sandra.

Col. Leek is stationed at the Marine Corps base at Ewa field on the islands.

The Leeks expect another arrival in their family within a few weeks.

Mrs. Hansen's flight to the island took 16 hours. Mr. Hansen took her to the Burbank airport Wednesday.

Beaumont Keeps Hot Pace in Local Nightball League

Beaumont Merchants continued to breeze in the local softball loop, adding their eighth victory against no losses when they downed the Palm Springs Transfer.

Palm Springs Lions remained in the place slot by defeating the Boys' club 16 to 6. Although the Lions took the game, the Boys' club provided the thrill. Ben Preito, third baseman for the losers, socked two homers off the pitching offering of Chief of Police Gus Kettmann. His mighty

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Youngs took off last weekend for a month in Balboa. They plan to re-open their store on East Amado road, around Sept. 1.

Nothing was reported missing in an attempt to burglarize the residence of Barney Ostrow at 274 Allejo road.

A. L. Morey to be In Charge Sunday At Both Services

A. L. Morey will conduct both services next Sunday at the Community church, Mrs. George B. French, in charge of summer services, said today.

He will speak at the combined church and Sunday school services at 9 a.m. and also at the 7:30 p.m. service.

Mrs. French said that attendance at the church is remaining high.

IT'S TIME TO CAN PEACHES

How to can peaches with or without sugar

Some things you should know about capturing the delicious, ripe summer flavor of peaches for winter-time eating—

To Can

Peel, halve, pit; slice if wished.

Hot Pack: Cover with boiling syrup or water, boil 3 to 5 minutes. Fill hot jar to 1/2 inch from top with hot fruit and liquid. Remove bubbles. Wipe rim. Adjust lid. Process pints or quarts in boiling water bath.

Freestone—10 minutes
Clingstone—20 minutes

Cold Pack: Fill hot jar with peeled raw halves. Cover to 1/2 inch from top with boiling syrup or water. Finish as above, process in boiling water bath.

Freestone—20 minutes
Clingstone—35 minutes

Suitable Canning Syrups

Light Syrup: Dissolve 1 cup sugar in 3 to 4 cups water.

Corn Syrup and Honey: Corn syrup or honey may be used to replace up to 1/2 the sugar specified.

Water Pack: Peaches may be canned satisfactorily without sugar. Use boiling water or fruit juice in place of sugar syrup. The fruit will lose some flavor and color.

To Peel

Freestones and some clings: Dip 6 to 8 at a time into kettle of boiling water for about 1 minute, then plunge into cold water and slip off skins.

ELBERTA PEACHES

MEAT, POULTRY BUTTER and EGGS

Meat, Poultry, Butter, Eggs and other dairy products are the principal items in our stores which continue without price control, but subject to possible re-control after August 21st. We believe Congress made a wise decision in providing for a continued free market for these commodities. From our knowledge and experience with meat and dairy products, we believe the consumers and producers alike will be benefited in the long run, if meat and dairy products are not re-controlled. A free market is the only way to assure a continuation of adequate non-black market supplies at non-black market prices.

These prices (except Fresh Produce) effective through Saturday, August 3. No sales to dealers. Right to limit reserved.

Holler Health Baths

DO YOU KNOW that the nervous system activates the lungs to breathe, the heart to beat, the intestinal tract to digest and eliminate? In fact — every action, mental or physical, is governed by the nervous system.

Healthy Nerves mean power and vitality in every act performed. Unhealthy nerves mean lowered power, poor vitality, interrupted impulses, poor circulation and obstruction.

Vitalife Electro-Aid Normalizing Massage with oscillation plus pine baths is the most effective means yet devised for nerve tissue regeneration. The individual cells are revitalized, normalized and re-educated to convey normal impulses.

If you are nervous, tired, over-worked or depressed — then — for added energy, earning power, and mental keenness —

New Buildings for School Districts Increase Budgets

Increases in cost of instruction, maintenance and plans for needed new class rooms were principal items in increased budgets for both Palm Springs high school and the Desert school district.

Plans for new buildings, the need for which has been apparent for the past two years, brought a sharp increase in the capital outlay items in both school budgets. Maintenance of present equipment and necessary increases in staff personnel were next on the list.

PLAN NEW BUILDINGS

The high school district budget for the new year is $284,750 compared to $245,533.39 expenditures last year. Hearing on the high school budget was held last night. Capital outlay, the biggest item, was fixed at $150,000.

The Desert school district budget hearing is slated for August 5. The budget, including a $75,000 item for new buildings, totals $286,095. Expenditures last year were $200,506.57. Voters in the Desert district recently authorized an increase in the tax rate limit to make possible erection of new classrooms.

AVOID BOND ISSUES

Both districts have been maintaining a reserve for new buildings, to be built on the pay-as-you-go plan rather than resorting to a bond issue.

Municipal Pool Now Paying Its Way, Chief Reports

For the first time in the three years it has been in operation, the municipal swimming pool, established through the generosity of former councilman Frank Cutler at his home, Merito place, is paying its own way, Chief of Police A. G. Kettmann, reported Thursday.

He rapped his knuckles on wood as he said it.

"We have six weeks more to go," he said.

Attendance at the pool since it opened, up to yesterday, has been 1,625. Last year the entire attendance was 2,191.

"We are within 500 of the total for last year and have six weeks to go," he said. "At the present rate, total summer attendance this year may top 3,000."

In the slightly more than a month that the pool has been in operation, 580 adults, 816 youngsters and 229 youths of high school age, have taken dips in the pool.

As of Monday, income was almost $50 ahead of expenses, Chief Kettmann said in his report to City Manager William Alworth.

Here To Dry Out—But Oh, That Humidity!

Mrs. Charles C. Henderson of Sunshine Court, spent Monday in the Village. The Hendersons are spending the hot months at Idyllwild.

"After eight days of rain, I thought I'd come down here to dry out," Mrs. Henderson said. "But, oh, this humidity!"

Mrs. Trudy Miller and Daughter to Leave This Weekend for Germany to Visit Col. Dan Miller in Europe

That "long, brown job" won't be seen rolling along the streets of the Village after this week-end. Mrs. Trudy Miller, of the local Western Union office, who used her Packard to deliver urgent messages to Villagers, plans to head the car eastward Saturday, objective: Brooklyn.

She and her daughter, Marilyn, the latter known to her pals as "Boots," are going to join Col. Dan Miller in Giessen, Germany. Col. Miller was in Palm Springs last October to visit his wife and daughter. Now they are going to Germany, where he is in charge of the quartermaster's depot at Giessen.

"Boots" is going to school in Europe during their visit there. The "long brown job" is going overseas with Mrs. Miller and daughter and they'll do a bit of touring over there to see the country.

Mrs. Miller was told by the government to be at Camp Hamilton, New York, on August 11. Date of actual sailing for Germany had not been set, she said. Camp Hamilton is in Brooklyn.

"It has been a lot of years since I've been in Flatbush," she said. "But the Bums are still leading the National League."

Mrs. Miller was glad that the government's papers on the trip were delayed sufficiently so that she could welcome her new grand-daughter, Diane.

Diane was born to her daughter, Mrs. Virginia (Bob) Martin, at Community hospital here July 19. Mrs. Miller cabled Col. Miller, acquainting him with the fact he was a grand-dad.

"I'm glad the government made it August 11 for me in Brooklyn. I got to see my grand-daughter, anyway."

Veterans Here to Get Service Right In Own Home Town

County offices of the Veterans' Administration were opened in Riverside county last Monday with W. J. B. Francis, contact representative of the V.A., in charge.

"We plan to bring the veterans' service needs to his own home town," he said.

Francis will be in Palm Springs all day each Tuesday at the chamber of commerce, 310 North Palm Canyon drive, he said.

Problems handled by the Veterans' Administration include hospitalization, pension claims, on the job training, school training and insurance.

El Salvador Great Country, Word From Village Councilman

From San Salvador in El Salvador, Central America, this week, comes an interesting letter from Mrs. Blanche Turonnet, wife of Councilman Armand Turonnet. The Turonnets are guests at the American embassy at San Salvador.

"Aside from the beauty of the country we are much impressed by the government's plans to modernize the nation and educate the masses," she wrote. "We were formally presented to the President general, Castoneda Castro, and he is most anxious to have his country follow the educational system extant in the United States. He is cooperating with our government which has an office here under our Inter-American Educational foundation. It is doing a grand job."

AT BIG RESORT

"This weekend we spent at a beautiful crater lake, Coatepeque, where there are beautiful chalets on the shores, fishing, swimming and boating. It is azure blue with tropical vegetation from the rim of the crater to the water's edge. "Unfortunately, this is not orchid time but we saw the trees dripping with plants. In the American embassy here there is an orchid plant that still has blooms, so we saw one, at least. "Yesterday we went through the coffee plantation Armand came here to see. It is the second largest in the republic—1800 acres and 1,250,000 coffee trees."

BETATAKIN INDIAN RUINS

Leaving Goulding's we crossed the Utah state line back into Arizona and headed down the dusty road in a southwesterly direction. I looked back at the receding mountains over the rise, realizing why so many studios had chosen Monument Valley as backgrounds: "Stage Coach," "Billy the Kid," "Kit Carson," "The Harvey Girls," and last, "My Darling Clementine." We passed the turn-off on our right to Olje-to trading post, site of the very first post ever established on the Navaho Indian reservation by the Wetherell's.

Then on beyond Anderson's camp and finally to Kayenta again, the most remote post of office in the United States. A short stop for mail and on through beautiful but treacherous (when wet) Marsh Pass. Here we could see the brilliantly red-walled Segi canyon stretching off to our right, toward our goal for the day; Betatakin. However, to drive to this noted cliff-dwelling ruin, we had to continue on about ten miles and come into it from the south and west, in a big back-tracking loop.

OVER TOUGH ROAD

I had long ago seen the name Betatakin on the road-maps and had wondered what it might be like, but never had a very crystallized idea about it, even though I had seen some beautiful color pictures of the ruins in Arizona Highways. I soon realized why it was not better-known by the travelling public. Although it is only about ten miles from the main dirt road running from Tuba City on through Monument Valley, that short stretch of road is a very bad one. When it goes over the loose clayish red soil, it's like a highway. In fact, in one stretch of such smooth roadway there is a warning sign: "WHOA! Instead of the usual SLOW! It is when the trail goes over what is locally known as slick-rock that the going is really bad, a preview of what we were to encounter later on the Rainbow bridge road. Slick-rock is a bare expanse of smooth sandstone, sometimes extending as far as a half mile. In these places, you merely drive across the rock, with painted arrows on the stone surface to direct you along the least destructive path. Over and across ledges you go, up steep slopes and down sharp inclines, around boulders, across ravines. If you don't take it slowly, your fly-wheel pan or oil-pan will suffer. You can't average more than ten miles an hour at the most across such intervals, but moved by the determination to reach your goal in spite of everything, you do get over the bad places, and later wonder why you were so worried. They always seem less hazardous on the return trip.

THROUGH FOREST

The road winds up a mountain slope, through a forest of pinyon pines and junipers, dotted with the bright golden yellow of wild wallflowers and the sheer crimson of penstemons. The soil itself between the rocks is a deep orange-brown hue, much like clay in constituency.

At long last you leave the rocky stretches behind and angling in and out among the trees, come to a halt beside a rustic log dwelling and a small single-roomed pine structure that is the headquarters for the Ruins. Betatakin is one of three separate and distinct cliff-dwellings included in Navaho National Monument, all three being under the one custodian, who lives here. His name is Jimmy Brewer, a young chap, just recently discharged from the armed services and returned to this national park position which he had held before the war. During his absence, Catharine and Bill Wilson from Rainbow bridge had looked after the place, and they have since returned to Rainbow Lodge to resume their former work.

Unfortunately Jimmy wasn't at home when we called; he was off on a horse-trip with a group of tourists to Keet Seel; instead we were welcomed by his father, a gray-haired jovial old gentleman who made us feel right at home.

ON RIGHT TRAIL

Although obviously in ill-health, us on the right trail to the ruins, and only at our repeated insistence did he return to the house. From the headquarters, where every visitor signs the big register book, there is a well-defined trail, called the Sandal Trail, about a mile in length, which leads you around and back to the opposite side of the narrow and deep canyon in which the ruins are located.

From this vantage point, you can look down and across into a huge cave, over two hundred feet high. In the bottom of this open cave, about fifty feet above the floor of the canyon, are the ruins of an ancient cliff-dwelling, occupied between the years 1242 and 1300, as determined by the tree-ring dating method. At that remote time, 700 years ago, this cave had nearly 150 separate rooms, of which more than 50 were living quarters for the various families dwelling there. Six of these rooms were evidently underground ceremonial chambers called "kivas," and 13 of them were open courts or patios, used for local gatherings. In addition there were at least two grinding rooms where the corn was converted into flour, and some 30 storage rooms, where supplies were accumulated and kept safe. Even the manos and metates with which the corn was ground are still there, just as the Indians left them so long ago.

FOUND IN 1909

The walls are exceptionally well-preserved, for the ruins were not discovered by whites until 1909, when John Wetherell and Dr. Byron Cummings chanced upon them, and they were not excavated and stabilized until 1917, then under the direction of Neil Judd of the Smithsonian. This, coupled with their remoteness and inaccessibility, have saved them from the inroads of amateur pot-hunters, who far too often destroy more than they find.

The name Betatakin is of Navaho origin, and is the name those Indians applied to the ruins when they found them. It means "Hillside House," and is pronounced Bay-tot-ah-keen.

The other two ruins included in Navaho National Monument are Keet Seel and Inscription House, both much more difficult to get to than this one. Keet Seel is the largest cliff dwelling in Arizona, and is reached only by an 11-mile trail. It is thought to be the last ruin in that area to be abandoned. It was discovered in 1893 and partially excavated in 1934.

The third of the trio, Inscription House, is some 20 miles directly west of Betatakin and Keet Seel, and requires a hike of several miles to see. It is the smallest of the three, containing only about 75 rooms, on the walls of one of which was once scratched an inscription (thus the name). Very little now remains of this inscription, which is believed to be of Spanish origin, but John Wetherell, who made his second trip there in 1909, remembers it as: "C H O S 1661 a d n."

COLORFUL VIEW

Jack had worn a bad blister on his heel during our exploring on the previous day, so we decided not to hike down into the canyon as we had originally planned. Instead, we ate our lunches on the brink of the cliff, trying to visualize all the activity that might have been seen below nearly 1000 years before. We whiled away another hour a few hundred yards beyond, for we found that a second canyon cut in behind us, joining the one in front of us a short distance to our right. We were in effect on the point of a "V." We hiked to the edge and stared down a sheer vertical drop of some 800 feet. Before us the main canyon continued a mile or so and then ran directly into a larger, deeper one: Segi Canyon, up which the Keet Seel ruins lay. The view out toward this canyon was one of the most colorful we had yet seen, for it was a mass of bright oranges and reds.

Chico was shouting for echoes again, and sure enough, he got about five clear ones in return. Then we turned back to the headquarters. Mr. Brewer again met us and urged us to remain overnight to see Jimmy, who was due in late that evening. But Jack decided we'd better go on, so we bid him goodbye and jarred back over the rocky road. This time we didn't continue on back to the main dirt road, but cut across to the trading post at Shonto, run by Reuben Hefflin. Reuben had one of the heartiest laughs we had yet heard, and he soon had us all in smiles. He maintains a small auto-court here, for overnight tourists. These courts are round and dome-shaped, patterned after the Navaho hogans and made to resemble them by being splattered with adobe mud.

RETURN TO FLAGSTAFF

Jack dickered awhile with Reuben over a wonderful big Navaho rug, priced at $125. It was a real beauty, and quite reasonable for the pattern, size, and tightness of weave. In a large city it would have sold for at least three times as much.

Then, anxious to be away, we drank a parting coke with him and continued on. En route, Jack decided that since his blister was still giving him trouble, we had better postpone the Rainbow bridge trip a couple of days. A pack-trip was no place to go with bad feet. And also, he had a special wide-angle lens awaiting him in the post office at Flagstaff, and he needed that lens for his contemplated pictures of the bridge. So, reluctantly, we dropped back down to the dirt

Palm Springs Will Be in Spotlight At Mountain Resort

Tomorrow night is going to be Palm Springs' night to howl at Idyllwild. Besides the already large section of the Village, making the mountain resort its summer home, many others are planning to trek up the mountain to participate in the fun.

Frank Bogert is going to be master of ceremonies for the event and there'll be plenty of local talent to entertain around the campfire in the evening. In fact, all of Saturday has been designated as Palm Springs Day and the program will start early. Villagers with cabins at the resort are making plans for house guests from the desert floor.

A dance at Idyllwild Inn will wind up the evening's festivities.

highway to Cow Springs and buzzed on southward past Tonalea to Tuba City. Here we took a short detour to the first of the Hopi pueblos: Moencopi. This pueblo recently was in the spotlight again as being where Howard Hughes' famous film, "The Outlaw," was taken. Even though that was over five years ago (the picture was held up that long because of censorship difficulties), Moencopi hasn't gotten over it yet. It was a filthy, ill-kept little village, the poorest of all the Hopi pueblos because it is the most easily available to tourists.

Stopping just long enough to photograph the dinosaur tracks outside of Tuba City, we rejoined the pavement and hummed on into Flagstaff. We got settled in Jack's favorite auto court. Tomorrow we would first explore famous Oak Creek canyon, the setting for Zane Gray's well-known novel: "The Call of the Canyon," and where at that time no less than two movie studios were on location!

Rental Situation Explained by Head Of County Office

Under the revised OPA bill signed a week ago Thursday by President Truman, tenants ordered evicted on Aug. 1 are not required to move and any month increases ordered effective on that date are nullified, George J. MacDonald, director of the San Bernardino-Riverside counties district OPA rent control office, said this week.

The resurrection of the OPA returns both the tenant and the landlord to their June 30 status and all federal rent control and eviction laws in effect that date are again in force.

Tenants who were given eviction notices during the interim period need not fear being put out of their homes, Director MacDonald said, since landlords are now prohibited from proceeding with eviction actions without first complying with all OPA requirements.

JUDGMENTS REQUIRED

The regulations are the same as those in effect on June 30, and require landlords to file a petition with the OPA asking for a certificate to evict, the establishment of a waiting period (from usually two to six months), serving of the eviction notice, and proper court action.

However, landlords who did comply with OPA eviction laws and then obtained an eviction judgment in court during the interim may proceed to evict legally.

Also tenants who were evicted from July 1 to 25 when penalties for OPA violations did not apply, cannot now regain possession.

RETAIN RENTS PAID

Even though court action calling for eviction under state laws during the interim may have been completed, the tenants may not yet be evicted until the landlord meets the OPA regulations, MacDonald said, and landlords who are uncertain as to whether they met all eviction laws are asked to consult the Riverside office.

Landlords who received more than the ceiling rents for July 1 to July 25 are not required by the OPA to refund the excess amount, MacDonald emphasized.

This means that if a tenant paid $75 rental for a former $50 house for the one month only (July 1 to Aug. 1) he cannot collect the extra $25.

However, if the landlord collected during the interim period more than one month's increased rent, he must refund the excess over the ceiling price for the 30-day period.

RENTS FROZEN

Director MacDonald expressed doubt that many Riverside landlords would be required to refund rent, since even under state law, they had to give tenants a 30-day notice of increased rent. Consequently, any increase would not be effective until Aug. 1.

Regardless of the terms of a new lease drawn up when the OPA was powerless, the landlord can charge no more than the ceiling rent on July 30.

Landlords who changed their rental basis contrary to rental regulations, such as from a monthly or weekly to a daily basis during the period when federal controls were off, must return to the rental period in effect for the unit on June 30.

MUST RETURN DEPOSITS

Security deposits given by tenants from July 1 to July 25 must be returned within 30 days from now, otherwise, the landlord is in violation of OPA regulations and subject to penalties.

Dwellings which were rented during the interim period must be registered with the OPA within 30 days.

City Zoning Board Recommendations O.K.

No action was taken by city council at its meeting Friday on recommendations of the city zoning board as presented by Harry Bergh, planning consultant.

As a result, the board's recommendations granting five zone variance requests and rejection of one, stand approved.

Highway Problems To Be Discussed At Aug. 6 Meeting

Riverside county's recommendations on state, county and municipal highways and streets, which will be presented to a state committee later this month, were discussed by the highways and transportation committee of the county chamber of commerce last week-end.

P. M. Swart, deputy Public Works director for Palm Springs, and a member of the county committee, was present. Findings of the committee will be presented to the Collier Interim committee of the state legislature, August 6 and 7. The county committee met at Riverside.

TAX QUESTION

One of the main items to be presented the Collier committee is the attitude of the various counties and communities in the state, on the matter of financing new highways and much needed highway repairs. It was the consensus that an increase in the gasoline tax was the best method. Amount of the increase was not decided. The present gasoline tax is four and one-half cents, three cents state tax per gallon and one and one-half cents federal tax.

In addition to the financing matter, routes to be repaired, rebuilt or realigned were touched upon.

TO BE GIVEN STATE

Findings of the committee will be presented at a hearing before the Collier committee at the county seat on August 6. The Collier committee was named by the state legislature to conduct a highway survey throughout the state. It will meet for two days in the county, the first day devoted to hearings and the second to inspection of some of the proposed projects.

City Manager William E. Alworth will represent the city at these hearings with Mr. Swart also present as a member of the county committee.

Isenagle Family
Back From Trip
To Lassen Area

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Isenagle and family, returned to the Village last Saturday from a two-week motor trip to the northern part of the state and brought word back with them of a former Villager now in that section of the country.

While in the north they vacationed at Old Station, Calif., at a guest ranch owned and operated by Gus Parrish. Parrish will be remembered here as operator of the old airport in former days.

He now owns and operates Rim Rock ranch, 155 acres of guest ranch, cottages, store, gas station and cottages on the slopes of Mt. Lassen, just outside of the national park. A stream runs through the ranch providing excellent fishing and there are trails for horseback riding.

"It's a beautiful set-up," said Isenagle.

Facts and Figures

By ETHEL GILLET WHITEHORN

Harry S. Truman used twenty-six pens when he signed the American Taxpayers' loan to Britain. Who received the "Pens of Honor" has not yet been publicized.

Sound thinking men in the Congress fought against the loan. They argued that from a financial and economic standpoint it would be a bad bargain and a foolish venture. They agreed that the termination of deficit spending and a balanced budget is the only road to economic stability.

Unfortunately, for the past thirteen years, sound thinking men in the Congress have had stacked against them too many careless thinkers who have had a field day playing tiddly-winks with America's resources. However, the complexion is changing. . . . Election Day falls in November.

FACTS REVEALED

During the recent debate on the British loan many interesting facts and figures were revealed. The following data is taken from the Congressional Record, June 24, page A3878:

It was the late Lord Keynes who advocated the loan to Britain shortly after the termination of the war. He was the man, who, in the early days of the New Deal, advised President Roosevelt that the only way to overcome the depression was to spend and spend. Shortly before his death, Lord Keynes addressed the British House of Lords. He said, "The American Congress and the American people have never accepted any literal principle of equal sacrifice, financial or otherwise, between all the Allied Principles."

As a matter of fact the United States spent more money in the war against Germany than Soviet Russia and the British Empire combined. American armies captured more German prisoners than the Russian, British, and French forces combined. Our war production was greater than the combined British and Russian output.

HUGE COST SHOWN

According to the Treasury Department, the cost of the war to the United States, as of February 27 was $320,294,000,000. Expenditures of the United Kingdom were $94,000,000. The total for the British Commonwealth and Empire was more than $125,000,000, including $3,600,000,000 for India; more than $18,000,000,000 for Canada; $7,750,000,000 for Australia; and $1,700,000,000 for New Zealand. Russian war expenditures have not been announced, but total Soviet expenditures, for all purposes, as reported in official budgets, were approximately $190,000,000,000 for the 1942-45 inclusive.

United States war expenditures included $46,040,000,000 worth of lend-lease aid—of which Russia received $10,801,000,000 and the British Empire received $30,269,000,000. Reverse lend-lease received by the United States totaled $6,256,000,000, including $5,921,000,000 from the British Empire and $2,000,000 from Russia.

MANPOWER TOTALS

The mobilization totals for the principal Allies were:

United States, 14,000,000;
British Empire, 12,000,000;
Soviet Russia, 22,000,000;
China, 5,900,000.

The United States had sixty divisions; Britain, fourteen; Canada, five; France, eleven; and Poland, one. On V-E Day the American army was occupying about three-fourths of the front in Europe.

The casualties of the United States were 1,097,193; the British Empire, 1,233,796.

NO JUST BASIS

In view of these facts there is no just basis for the statement made by the late Lord Keynes that "The American people have never accepted any literal principle of equal sacrifice, financial or otherwise between all the Allied Principles."

Our present National Debt is approximately $272,000,000,000. The American people were heartened recently when the Secretary of the Treasury announced the debt would be reduced immediately by approximately 25 billion dollars. However, when the books were balanced for the fiscal year, ending July 1, 1946, they showed a $21,000,000,000 deficit—the New Deal cost of Government for exactly one year.

The British loan came along at a time when our states and counties were about to get out of debt, but the New Deal will never let them get even. California's share of the National Debt is $13,814,774,000. Her share of the British Loan is $193,406,836.

PATCHES IN PANTS

From 1776 until 1933—a period of 157 years, Uncle Sam was a picture of sartorial elegance. His tall top-hat, with its band of stars was worn with a jaunty air. His suit of red, white, and blue was never out of press, and his boots never needed a shine.

Today, Harry S. Truman, always a picture of sartorial elegance, even to the precise points of his handkerchief, peeping out of his breast pocket, would be doing America a great service if he would use twenty-six pens to announce to the people that Uncle Sam's grandeur is to be restored immediately. It isn't logical that the President of the United States should be so perfectly groomed, while Uncle Sam is reduced to patches in his pants.

City Officials of Two Counties Meet Here

Palm Springs Will Be Host to Citrus Belt League Rally

Palm Springs will be host to the Citrus Belt division of the California League of Municipalities at its first fall meeting, P. M. Swart, deputy public works director, said today. The meeting will be held in November.

Mr. Swart represented Palm Springs at last Friday's meeting of the Citrus Belt division of the league at San Bernardino.

PROBLEMS DISCUSSED

Ted Skelly of Montebello was the speaker and he discussed problems of city governments as of today. His talk was along humorous lines but carried a punch when he spoke of problems facing city government.

Almost 100 delegates from various cities in San Bernardino and Riverside counties were present at the meeting which was held at the California hotel in San Bernardino.

OFFICERS ELECTED

Officers for the division were elected at the meeting. W. M. Colburn, mayor of Corona, was elected president, R. M. Milligan, mayor of Rialto, vice-president, and Councilwoman Helen Hester of Indio, re-elected secretary.

Plans for the meeting in Palm Springs in November are being prepared by Mr. Swart, City Manager William E. Alworth and Mayor C. A. Hyde.

What Goes On at Rancho Mirage

Our legion hall, now one month old, was well broken in last Friday evening when the American veterans of World War II formed its Palm Springs post under the able leadership of neighbor Frank Bogert. It sounded so well that we Rancho Mirage Legionnaires, Dr. Claude Church, Charley (Chuck) Burger, Woods, Shirley Berton and I signed the list of charter members. Shirley distinguished herself by being elected to the post of provost marshal. Another signer was H. M. (Wiggie) Van Noorden from Palm Village.

Mirage airport was graced last Wednesday by a surprise call in his private plane, from that gay boulevardier of last season's night spots, Fred Duffey, who is now area engineer for the W. B. Whisend construction company. He was lining up the work that his company expects to start here in the near future.

Those two gal blades, Petey Harper and Johnny Bischoff, transferred their activities and this past weekend were wowing the Crestline belles at the dance there. They bring to mind the following: A nice young G.I. was out for the weekend and when he returned to the barracks couldn't hit the sack fast enough. While he was lying there completely out to the world his bunkmates hung on him the following sign: "Out of Ardor."

Claire Leahy is off again. This time she is spending a week with the Doc Gurleys in San Marino.

Some people get their summer vacations but this old fellow has to work harder than ever now. Mary went off with Neva Munchoff to spend a few frigid days at Ron Button's Moon Lodge at Crestline leaving me all the work of Rancho Mirage plus the problem of cooking my own pork chops.

Cheerio, mates.

Villagers Have Great Time on Northwest Tour

From Spokane comes a letter from Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Yerkes describing a wonderful vacation trip up the coast via the Redwood highway and then along the Columbia river to Spokane. There they visited Mrs. Yerkes' sister who lives on a ranch near Opportunity, Wash.

"Lots of rich butter, milk, cherries, raspberries, and all kinds of vegetables up here" they wrote The Sun.

From Spokane they will go to Seattle and then to Vancouver and Victoria. They plan to be back in Palm Springs about the middle of September.

Seven Villagers Have Great Time At Convention

Seven Villagers were back this week after a trip to San Francisco and the Shrine convention there last week. They went up on Monday and returned Friday.

Making the trip were Fire Chief William Leonesio, John Archibald, Gordon Feekings, Maurice Libott, Kenneth DuBose, Marvin Sale and Jack Lasley. They all reported it an excellent convention and a fine time, all around.

Villagers on Vacation

Moya Henderson Writes from the Top of the Hill

There was a gay and hilarious time on the old Hill this past weekend as most of you Villagers know. Seems like everyone was up here. Sponsored by the Idyllwild Chamber of Commerce, the two nights of the Forty-niners carnival were packed with fun and entertainment.

Booths were installed in the center of the Village and the road roped off for dancing. Each evening commenced with a parade and the outfits of the paraders were worth seeing. Especially popular with the small fry was the fish pond. Saw Martha Bell Peeler helping her two young daughters catch a prize. Little Gail Butler was getting a kick out of watching the other youngsters. Had a hard time recognizing Gordon Nicholson and Jimmy Cooper who grew beards for the big event. Bumped into Palm Springs on all sides, the Neels, Butlers, Doros, Klugs, Wrights, Leone Inman and Dorothy Fanning—just to mention a few. Barbara Nordurf, Albert Frey and Tony Burke were very smart. Came equipt to spend the night and realizing there would probably be a housing shortage, brought along sleeping bags and cots. The younger set went in for dancing.

Spotted around the crowded floor Chuck St. George, Jim Wills, Jay Holderman, Bob Lieneau, John Klug, Bill Foster and Don Omlin. Some of the crowd migrated up Fern Valley way in search of refreshment—ran into Stella Rourke, Swede Davis, and Earl Neels. Carl Lyken really brought home the bacon, twelve pounds of it, won on the wheel of chance. Why doesn't some one raffie some eggs to go with it. All proceeds of the carnival go to the building fund for a recreation hall to be built on Cedar street, down by the theatre.

Louise Hennes was the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Steven Vidossics over the weekend. Juanita and Merrill Crockett have closed the Village Pharmacy for the month of August and moved up to their Saunders Meadow cabin. Merrill is foregoing the pleasure of a backwoods fishing trip this season in order to be around when he becomes a grandfather. Oh, well, Hemel lake is close by and Donny Williams used to pull them in fast out of Strawberry creek.

Young Gordon Nicholson takes off this week for New York to be the house guest of war time buddy. He's already prepared a list a mile long of things he intends to do and see during his three weeks stay. He'll return by way of New Orleans and then knuckle down to studying at Woodbury college in Los Angeles.

All of us on the Hill were saddened last week to hear of the death of Margaret Cree, a wonderful person who contributed so much to both the Women's club and the Welfare association and gave so unstintingly of her time and efforts even when in ill health. Our sympathy goes to Ray Cree at his great loss.

From Riverside we hear that Don DuBose was discharged from the Community hospital Wednesday after undergoing a successful operation. The DuBoses will spend the next few weeks in Balboa at the Point hotel, a Palm Springs hideout as the Gordon Youngs and Earl Houghs are making it their abode too. We also have news that Dawson Goff expects to be transferred from an Army hospital in Texas to Birmingham hospital in Van Nuys soon. This is good news to Vona Gogg, who for the past months has been making the trip to Texas every other weekend in order to be with her husband.

Mary and Phil Delano have been taxing their minds to find a name for their new subdivision. I like Mary's suggestion of Pon-

Sudden Illness Halts Village Vacation Trip

Plans for a vacation trip down to Ensenada were suddenly interrupted last Sunday for Mary Vajsabeal, employed at the Dunes cafe here.

The Dunes closed Sunday for a month and she had planned to go to Mexico for a vacation. But she was suddenly stricken ill and instead of going to Ensenada, went to the Community hospital here.

derosa (botanical of white pine) Meadows or Ponderosa Flats. Why not just call it Delano's Dilemma?

We'll be seeing all of you up here Saturday night for, as you know, it's Palm Springs night. And if you happen to have any hidden talents don't be bashful, come forth and volunteer for the campfire program. We wouldn't want to be outdone by Hemet or Indio.

Headed West

Villagers Clothing Taken in Burglary

A suspect, last seen headed west through Banning, was sought by local police today in an attempt to recover a suit, white shirt and tie, reported stolen here early this week.

Lonnie Malone, colored, was the victim of the thief and his blue suit, shirt and tie were the loot. Police were given a good description of the suspect who apparently was headed for Los Angeles when last seen.

Trip to San Diego

Judge E. E. Theriault of the city and township courts, was in Riverside Monday to sit for Judge R. A. Moore of the county high justice court.

Wednesday and Thursday of this week, Judge Theriault was in San Diego.
